Policy for Library Maintenance

Consistent with the college's mission to advance the highest quality of learning, teaching, research, and community service among students, faculty and staff the JSM College Library provides access to a broad range of services and information resources both in print and online. Users of the JSM College Library at all locations shall be bound by the policies and procedures of the Library and of JSM College more generally. Additional procedures and guidelines may be implemented by the Library to govern specific services and facilities, including the definition of specific borrowing privileges, lending procedures, and archival practices. These policies and procedures may be enforced by levying fines, suspending privileges and other sanctions as specified by the Library.

Library users must at all times respect the need to maintain a quiet atmosphere conducive to independent study and research. Any user who exhibits behavior that is disruptive to other users may have their library privileges revoked, and/or be immediately evicted from the Library and subject to review and the possible imposition of sanctions under the appropriate disciplinary policy or regulation (e.g. Student Conduct).

Access to the Library's collections, services and facilities is open to all members of the college community. Access to digital resources licensed for JSM College use, are restricted to faculty and staff, and to registered students.

The Chief Librarian is responsible for the interpretation and administrative direction of this policy and all associated procedures and guidelines to ensure their consistency with JSM College's policies and priorities, as well as broader regulatory and licensing requirements. This office is also responsible for ensuring appropriate accountability measures are in place at all levels.
